Fest for whole community Sat.

Canyon Days '76 will be a hometown festival for all Canyon and Randall County residents as they join in the local observance of the nation's bicentennial birthday.

The hometown festival will be held Saturday, July 3, with activities going on throughout the city. Chamber of Commerce extends a special "invite" to Happy, Umbarger, and Gene Howe residents along with other area residents who'd like to "join the party."

An annual parade and barbecue, a spectacular free fireworks display, and historic evening ceremony for the "time capsule" deposit will be among the highlights of the day.

The festival will center on Conner Park with a variety of historic exhibits to be set up and a community-wide flea market place to open for business at 1 p.m. on Saturday. The flea market, managed by the women's division, Canyon Chamber of Commerce, will include craft booths, concessions and various other booths with attendants selling a variety of wares until 4 p.m.

Conner Park is expected to be filled with spectators throughout the afternoon as a repeat of the Canyon Exhibit is presented with a booth displaying old styled kitchen utensils such as coffee grinders, butter churns, irons, etc.

Other historic displays will include the making of lye soap being handled by the Pleasantview Home Demonstration clubwomen and a nearby washing demonstration being handled by the Jowell 4-H Club members.

Adjacent the park, First Presbyterian Church fellowship hall will be the site for a "quilting and tasting" affair. The Heritage Woman's Club members will have tables filled with old fashioned tidbits prepared from early 1700's recipes which will be served free to the public. The recipes will be displayed with a table for copying down recipes available during the afternoon from 1-4 p.m.

The "quilt" display, prepared by Sue Hite Club of Canyon, will feature over 50 heirloom quilts and spreads on display and will also include a quilting exhibit and demonstration for those interested in learning more about the early Americana craft.

Other activities in the park to entertain spectators will include tumbling, cheerleading, and other activities for children being demonstrated by students from the Summer Recreation Program. In addition, the summer recreation group and other children of the community will be staging three legged toesack races, ball pitching and outdoor games for children beginning at 2 o'clock. Also planned is a "watermelon eating" contest for the youth.

At 3:10, the youngest festival goers in the age bracket of 1-10 will be having a "penny hunt" on the playground with the hunters entitled to keep the bicentennial pennies that they find. The pennies, which are being furnished by the First National Bank and West Texas State Bank in Canyon, will be hidden in the playground area of the park.

At 3:30 p.m. "water polo" games will get underway in the front parking area of Rex Reeves Elementary School. Canyon Volunteer Fire Department will set up the polo game which is played by two-man teams facing off on either side of a cable to which is attached a ball. Object of the game is to move the ball to the opponent's end of the cable by directing a water stream from a fire hose.

"Anyone can play water polo," according to a department spokesman, and participants should come dressed to "get wet." Water polo games will be open to the public with men and women invited to join the firemen in the fun. Injuries (which are not common in the game) are the sole liability of participants. The game of water polo was originated as a fun game to help firemen improve control of fire hoses in training sessions and is commonly used as a training exercise and festival activity throughout the Texas Panhandle.

Highlight of the afternoon festival will be the traditional parade which is set to begin at 4:30 p.m. with branding irons and barbecue tickets to be given for the best parading entries, according to Roland Black, Chamber of Commerce manager.

The parade group will convene at the parking lot of First National Bank and will proceed from that starting point to Conner Park. The parade route will traverse Fourth Avenue until it reaches 18th Street where it will take a southern turn to Conner Park. The parade group will dismiss after arriving at the park.

A traditional barbecue and full plate of trimmings will be served at the park starting at 6 p.m. The barbecue is being co-sponsored by Lone Star Feedyards, West Texas State Bank, First National Bank and the Canyon Chamber of Commerce.

Tickets to the barbecue may be purchased at the serving table for $2 for adults or $1 for children. Entertainment during the meal is to be provided by a group of tumblers from the Maverick Club. The winner of an expense paid vacation to Six Flags Over Texas is expected to be announced during the barbecue events.

After the western feast is served, the park will be the site for a "time capsule" deposit as members of the Canyon-Randall County Bicentennial Committee participate. The capsule's contents have been gathered by the members of the Woman's Book Club, original federated club of the county, for inclusion in the capsule.

The brief program will include recognition for Canyon Girl Scouts who have planted several new trees in the confines of the park along with recognition for the various contents of the capsule, and recognition for CHS students who designed and built the capsule.

The "capsule ceremonies" will be concluded with the lowering of the United States Flags by members of the three Boy Scout Troops of Canyon.

Court ruling victory for Pond; wage ruling has no effect here

A U.S. Supreme Court ruling Monday could prove to be a victory of sorts for Randall County Judge Woody Pond.

But, another court ruling, rendered last week and altering the wage and hour requirements for local governments, is expected to have little impact here.

The court ruled Monday that layman or non-lawyer county judges can hear criminal cases so long as the state affords an appeal route through a state court with a lawyer-judge on the bench, according to area news sources.

While he has not yet seen a complete copy of the opinion handed down Monday by the Supreme Court in ruling on a Kentucky case questioning the constitutionality of lay county judges hearing criminal cases, Pond said Tuesday the decision "should squelch somewhat" a renewed effort in Texas to require that all members of the state judiciary above the justice of the peace level be lawyers.

"I'm pleased with the decision," Pond said.

Pond had been a staunch opponent in 1975 to legislative attempts to write into a proposed new Texas Constitution a clause requiring that all judges in the state judicial system be lawyers, except justices of the peace. He travelled several times to Austin to lobby against the proposed legislation.

A contingent of county judges successfully prevented the inclusion of the clause in the proposed constitution.

Screwworms threaten county

Screwworms have moved as far north as Armstrong County and are a threat to pets and livestock in Randall County, officials said this week.

County Agent John Brazzil warned Randall County livestock and pet owners this week to be aware of any infections in their animals and to sample any infections for testing by the USDA.

Dr. M.E. (Cotton) Meadows Jr., director of the USDA Screwworm Eradication Program, said laboratory identification of

"I think according to the statistics, the learned judges who have a law degree have just as many or more complaints such as the one in Kentucky as layman judges," Pond said.

Nevertheless, Pond believes judges whether laymen or attorneys must continue their education.

"I personally think that it should be mandatory that all county judges, whether they are attorneys or not, attend at least one seminar each year and keep abreast of the changes in the law and procedure," he said. Continuing judicial education is mandatory under Texas law for justices of the peace but not for other members of the state County Judge Woody Pond and Auditor Betty Hodges are expected to hand county commissioners an unexpected possible quarter of a million dollars windfall today.

The two county officials agreed Wednesday that in figuring the 1976-77 budget proposal they had failed to include a full three months worth of receipts which will go into county coffers during October, November and December.

The windfall is available due to the change this year to an Oct. 1-Sept. 30 fiscal year. In the past the county has operated under a Jan. 1-Dec. 31 fiscal year.

The windfall, Pond agreed, could provide the financing to save Randall County taxpayers from what appeared earlier this week to be an inevitable tax increase to finance a full county revaluation program and expanded office expenditures for the upcoming fiscal year.

The additional monies, which will be available from the current year's budget due to the change in fiscal years, could total as much as $400,000, if last quarter expenditures equal or surpass first quarter expenditures for departments.

Mrs. Hodges said Wednesday she had not included the revenue potential from the final three months of the budgeted 1976 fiscal year to the 1976-77 new fiscal year projections in the budget which commissioners have been pursuing since late May.

But she agreed the monies would be available to go into the 1976-77 budget.

First quarter 1976 expenditures by county officers totalled $429,000, but first quarter expenditures are generally higher than expenditures in other quarters due to an abundance of one-time payments which come due in January.

The inclusion of the income available due to the new calendar could make moot any further discussion of a tax increase to finance county government next year. It could also make moot continued discussion of how to finance a full revaluation of county property.

Likewise, it could make moot a problem which arose recently concerning the legality of hiking taxes this month to be effective in October.

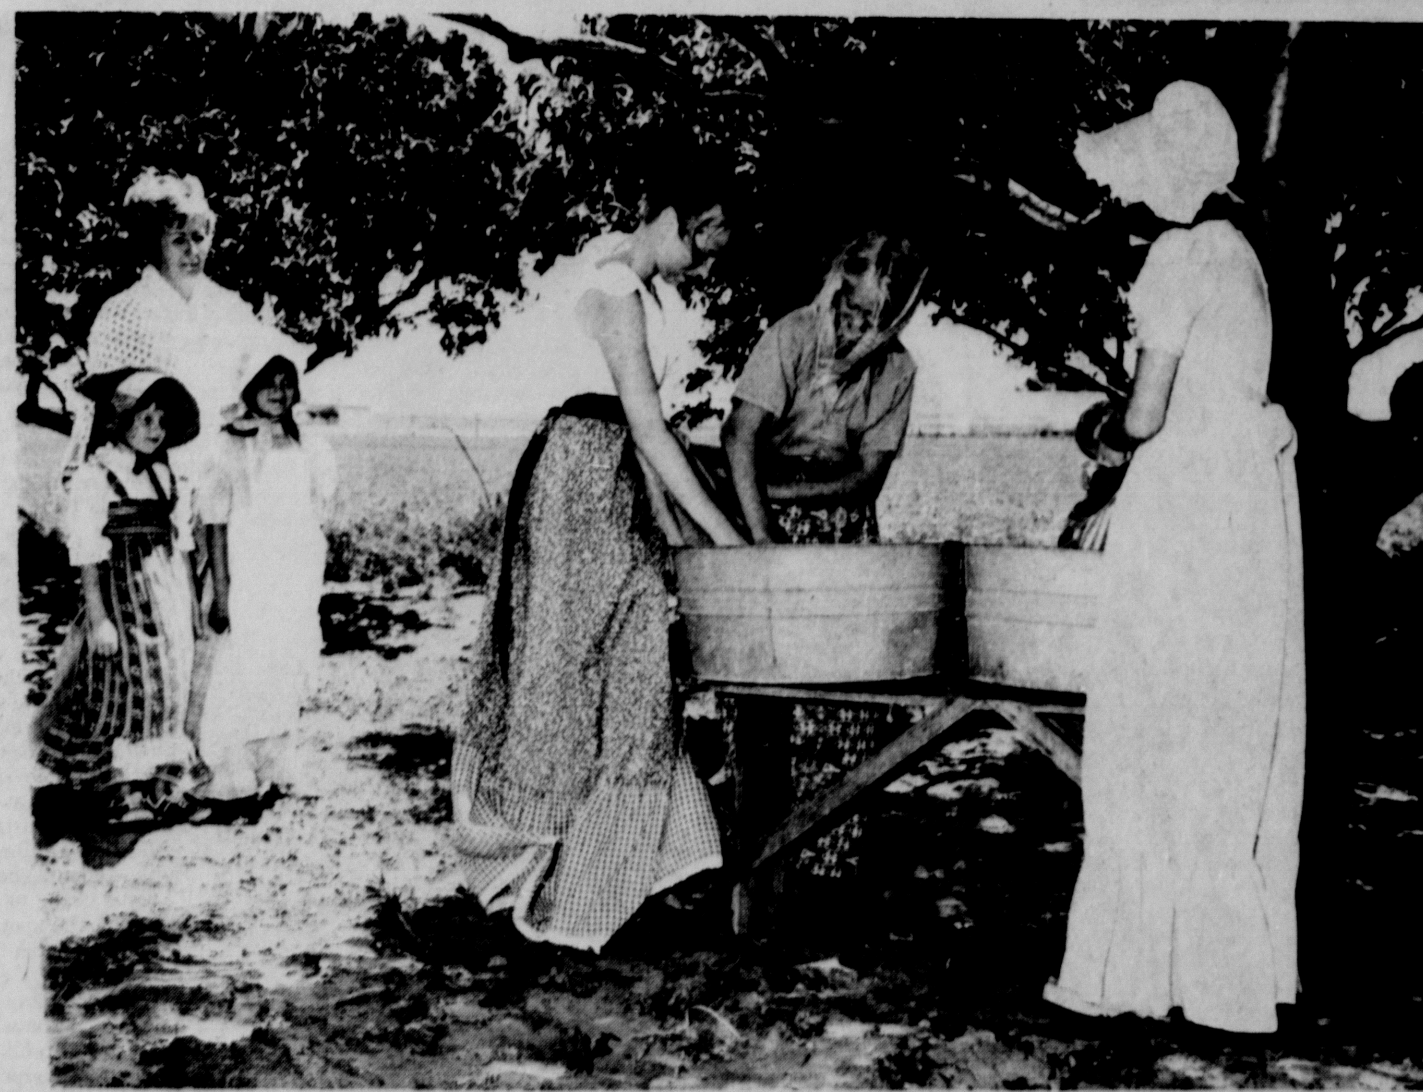

Today's commission meeting will focus on the 1976-77 budget, a tax rate and ratio for the fiscal year beginning in October, and whether or not a full county revaluation should be contracted for with an outside appraisal firm.

Commissioners began this budget-planning season with a budget calling for revenue of $1,945,000 and expenditures of $1,868,000 for a surplus of about $77,000.

But, commissioners instructed (See TAXES, Page 5)

Washing the old fashioned way at Conner Park will be members of the Jowell 4-H Club on Saturday, July 3. The washing crew, from left in foreground, are Janie Iribeck, Elissa Poort and Debra Downing as the 4-H leader, Mrs. Allen Downing, and youngsters, Betty Jo Downing and Angella Poort, left-background, are ready to check out the progress of washing day.

LaGrone to go on work-release

After spending a little more than a month behind bars, Jerry N. LaGrone of Canyon will be placed on another work-release program today if an order prepared Tuesday by Dist. Atty. Randall Sherrod is signed.

The order was to be presented to 47th Dist. Court Judge Bryan Poff late Wednesday or today calling for the establishment of a work-release program under the supervision of Sheriff Cliff Longest.

LaGrone was ordered jailed in the Randall County facility on May 20 after Sherrod and Poff learned the former Canyon businessman had been seen driving and shopping in Amarillo.

LaGrone was sentenced in July 1975 to spend one year incarcerated in the Potter County Alcoholic Recovery Center and one year on a work-release program. He had been found guilty of driving while intoxicated, subsequent offense.

However, information filed with LaGrone's file and reports from citizens in Amarillo indicated LaGrone had been placed on a work-release program as an alcoholic counsellor at the center in violation of the sentence. LaGrone was also paid $600 per month by Potter County as a counsellor.

Poff had told LaGrone he would be placed on a work-release program just days after LaGrone was returned to the Randall County jail.

The order prepared by Sherrod earlier this week says Longest "is to provide guidelines applicable to the said work-release program, subject to further order of this court."

"The defendant is required to abide by the said work-release regulations as provided by the Randall County sheriff. Violation of the said provisions shall result in the defendant serving the remainder of his sentence in the Randall County jail."

In addition, the order contains another clause which says that as a condition of allowing LaGrone to be placed on the work-release program LaGrone "shall be required to submit to a breath analysis test at the request of the Randall County sheriff. Failure to abide by this provision shall result in the defendant's confinement in the Randall County jail for the duration of the original sentence."

During a brief hearing following the return of LaGrone to Randall County in mid-May, Poff indicated an appropriate work-release program for LaGrone might be the counselling of alcoholics.

LaGrone, one-time president of the Canyon School Board, is former owner of the Canyon funeral home.

America essays for bicentennial

Essays on "America Today" have been printed in the Canyon News and Canyon Sunday News during the past few weeks as a result of the contest sponsored by the Woman's Book Club.

The contest finalists included Curt Johnson and Marvin Hill, whose joint efforts produced the first place essay. Other finalists in the contest were Susie Wright, second place; Jeanne Parker, third place; Janet Blair, fourth place; Ronnie Hoyl, fifth place; and Sally Flenniken, sixth place.

The winning essay will be among items encapsulated in the "time capsule" to be a part of the July 3 Canyon Days '76 celebration.

'History' to go in capsule

The "time capsule" to be deposited underground in a specially prepared receptacle at Conner Park Saturday evening will be filled with historic paraphernalia.

The "capsule's" contents were arranged for through the Woman's Book Club of Canyon, the original federated club in the county, which in its own infancy was the founding group for the original library facilities for the county.

Essays written about "America Today" by students of Canyon Public Schools will be included in the capsule's contents along with the current 1976 Cleta-Umbarger and Canyon phone directory. The directory is illustrated with a painting by local western artist, Jim Ward, who will also have another form of his works in the capsule's contents.

A bronze three-coin set of original western art by Ward will be included in the capsule's contents courtesy of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce.

Also included in the capsule will be souvenir programs and brochures covering the first 11 seasons of the outdoor musical drama "TEXAS" which is being produced during the summer months in the Pioneer Amphitheatre of Palo Duro Canyon. Alongside the "TEXAS" brochures will be the programs from "They Came From Spain" (which was produced as a season extension into the fall some years past) and the original program from the first show at the amphitheatre "Thundering Sounds of the West".

Paul Green, author of the outdoor drama, will have a hardback book titled "TEXAS" enclosed in the capsule and the musical score for "TEXAS" which was prepared by Isaac Van Grove is likewise to be included in hardback cover.

Another book of historic significance to be included in the capsule's contents will be a 1967 copy of those owning property in both Potter and Randall Counties entitled the "Potter-Randall County Farm Plats".

West Texas State University's current student catalogues on courses, yearbooks, student handbooks and other university paraphernalia will be included along with a folder concerning the area-wide project "American Reflections" which benefitted the university.

Also included will be a descriptive brochure on the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, which is located on the Southwestern corner of the university campus presently.

In addition current copies of The Canyon News and Canyon Sunday News which describe the bicentennial celebration are to be included. Also included will be a news copy describing the "Windows To The Past" festival and an 8 x 10 photograph of the original L. T. Lester home.

The "time capsule" will be deposited in ceremonies at 8:30 p.m.

Saturday at Conner Park. Receptacle for the capsule was prepared during the spring months by Canyon High School students under the guidance of Harold Hagemeyer, instructor.

Bicentennial festival chairman, Jane Stephens, reports that the capsule will be opened July 4 in the year 2000.

The capsule ceremony will include a musical birthday salute by Canyon High School bandmen under the direction of J. W. King, and the lowering of the United States flag by the three Boy Scout Troops of Canyon.

Extending birthday wishes to America on the bicentennial birthday this year will be a number of Canyon well-wishers including first grade students from the schools who will be marching in the parade at 4:30 p.m. Saturday. The parade will progress from the downtown area to Conner Park and will be arriving in time for the 6 o'clock barbecue feast at the park. Tickets for the barbecue are selling at $2 for adults or $1 for children and will be available at the chamber's feast.

'America today'

By CURT JOHNSTON & MARVIN HILL

Our names are Curt Johnston and Marvin Hill, and this is the month of May and the year of 1976. We consider life today very civilized and advanced. We have a good life, but it also has its problems. We would like to tell you about our life today.

We have advanced in our technology through the years. Our methods of transportation include airplanes, trains, subways, motorcycles and automobiles. Some of our more inefficient past forms of transportation are horse, horse-drawn buggy and bicycles. These forms of transportation do not go as far, nor as fast, but they do conserve energy for the years ahead.

Currently, we are going through an energy crisis because we cannot produce enough energy for our needs.

We are trying to find more ways to conserve energy such as carpools (where people share a car to go to work), riding bikes, walking, and use of public transportation.

We also have good means of communication such as telephones, teletypes, radio, television, and coming into current popularity is the C.B. or citizen band radio. We have been using these types of communication for several years.

Scientists are working on a type of telephone that will have a screen, where the person's face will appear. Maybe this will be perfected by the time this time-capsule is opened.

The style of clothes of this day and age varies with the people. Businessmen usually wear a coat and tie to work, and nurses and policemen have special uniforms issued to them.

When people are at home they like to wear comfortable clothes, such as shorts, T-shirts, jeans and tennis shoes. Women's hair styles are either short or long. We are currently in a controversy as to whether male students should wear their hair long or short.

Some of the most entertaining and fun pastimes are sports. The most popular sports are football, basketball and baseball. The people who go to watch these sports, enjoy them, because of the relaxation and the spirit of competition they provide.

There are many good things about our life, but it also has many bad qualities. We have already maintained the energy crisis, when people were not careful about conserving energy. One of our biggest problems is overpopulation, where there are too many people, and not enough land for them. Our problems include racial and sexual prejudices. Where people are deprived of their rights because of cultural background, sex and/or race.

These are just a few of our problems. We hope you have found a solution to them to make your life happier.

Boy Scout, David Blake, is chairman for the "penny hunt" of the July 3rd community celebration and will supervise Boy Scouts of Troop 66 and 132 in proper hiding places for the pennies. The shiny new pennies are being provided by First National Bank, represented by John Childs, left, and West Texas State Bank, represented by Steve McCullough. The "penny hunt" will be at 3:10 p.m. July 3 in the playground area of Conner Park with youngsters, aged 1-10, invited to keep the pennies they find.

Cornett. The club will be serving foods from the past and recipes will be on exhibit during the afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church fellowship hall.

Marvin Hill, left, and Curt Johnston, received first place recognition in the recently judged essay contest sponsored by Woman's Book Club. The first place essay and other memorabilia will be enclosed in a "time capsule" to be deposited underground at Conner Park during the July 3 bicentennial celebration for Randall County residents.

Johnston is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Johnston, 3303 Linda Lane, and Hill's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hill of 504 8th Avenue, Canyon. They are English class students of Mrs. Boone McClure at Canyon Junior High School.

Join our circle of friends.

Why do we emphasize "circle of friends" while other banks emphasize their "full circle of service"? Because we're the bank that pays special attention to customers: all of them, in a great big way, no matter what service or services they use. The bank that thinks of customers as a circle of friends. And the nicest thing about our circle is that it's always open. There's always room for one more. How about you?

Taxes . . .

Mrs. Hodges two weeks ago to include in her budget figures space for the full requests of each department head.

She presented those figures to county commissioners Monday, figures which would leave the county with a deficit in the 1976-77 budget of $341,000 if adopted.

The second budget proposal showed revenue of $1,947,000 and expenditures of $2,289,100.

If in fact the funding from the final three months is available for inclusion in the 1976-77 budget, commissioners won't have to worry at least this year about how to finance a county revaluation.

Five outside firms have bid on the job, which would require one year. Their bids range in price from $219,000 to nearly $300,000 for the project.

Commissioners would not have to worry, either, about a state law which has been unofficially interpreted by Atty. Gen. John Hill to mean that a tax hike instituted this year would not be effective until the next succeeding year.

Bond . . .

ceived contributions of $1070 from four individuals and a $2000 loan from the Amarillo First National Bank.

Key contributors were Dick Hermann of Amarillo, who gave $135 to the campaign; LaVerne Collins, who lists an address with the trust department of the First National Bank, who contributed $90; Wales Madden Jr. of Amarillo, who contributed $135; and Glen L. Casey of Amarillo, who contributed $710.

Madden and Hermann were said by school officials to be part owners of a half-section of land just north of the Estacado Estates subdivision in South Amarillo. The owners met with Canyon School Board members two weeks ago to petition for de-annexation of the property from the Canyon district and annexation by the Amarillo district.

Casey is a South Amarillo developer. The records show that the First National Bank made a loan of $2000 to the committee on May 20 and was repaid $2012 on June 15.

A total of $909 was contributed to the committee by persons giving under $50, the record shows. Persons contributing under $50 are not required to list their names on the contribution statement.

Actual expenditures of the committee, outside of the loan repayment, totalled $1960. That total includes $1496 paid the Amarillo Globe-News for advertising, $264 paid The Canyon News for advertising, and $199.41 paid to Keen for "reimb. of misc. exp."

The committee spent more than any other opposition committee in any of the three bond issue election attempts.

Fulgenzi has 12,046 voters in his precinct while Commissioner Dee Griffin has 6,538 voters, Commissioner Jim Fletcher has 7,632, and Commissioner Paul Lindsey has 6,838 voters.

Commissioners also discussed, but took no action on, the possibility of paving Sundown Lane from the Canyon E-Way to Western Street next year. Cost of the project will be about $20,000, Lindsey said.

The paving would accommodate traffic anticipated to a new Canyon School District elementary school which is to be constructed at Sundown and Western next year.

Commissioners took no action on signing a contract with Metropolitan Ambulance Service of Amarillo. Three local governments have verbally contracted with the service for service in Canyon and rural areas. Cost is $1.141 per entity per month.

Siesta Noticias

Good news and bad -- it's hot

BY JO FULKERSON
TO START OFF with, according to the old cliché, I have good news and bad news; the bad news is that it has been very warm in our part of the country. The good news is that it is lots hotter elsewhere.

I got a card from a friend in Arizona, who reports that it has been well over 100 degrees there for some time now and she and her family are really uncomfortable. Aren't we lucky? Really?

MRS. LOUISE SHEETS

reports that her son and family are on vacation — will be touring the southern states of Florida, Alabama and Louisiana. Sort of a business and pleasure trip combined.

Louise sort of wished they had tucked her in the car with them. She is from Jacksonville, Florida originally.

SHIRLEY CARTER IS enjoying her new job at The Red Lobster. She says it is lots of work, but something new happening all the time. Husband Charlie got back a few days ago from Oklahoma, a trip he took to return some visiting relatives to their homes. The Carter's niece, Neda, is still visiting with the Carters. She is also from Oklahoma.

EUNICE RINEHART REALLY made my day for me the other day by bringing me the most beautiful arrangement of roses from her yard. Isn't it nice that something thoughtful can cheer a fellow up. Sort of like they say on TV: "Have a good day and pass it on." Eunice did.

The Rinehart's had their son and grandson over the past weekend. They had been fishing at Meredith and brought home a sizeable catch. Eunice has her freezer full, she says.

THERE HAS BEEN illness at the Mike Starker home at 137 Siesta Lane. Maybe by this time Scotty and the baby are both feeling better.

It must have been one of these newfangled viruses. It has gotten to the point now (almost) that you nearly have to mortgage the car to pay the doctor and prescription bills. Here's to better health, Starker family.

NEW PUPPIES AT the Woods' house on Loma Linda. Sue raises Whippets for show dogs and her male dog has been shown at many of the shows around and has received several awards.

Anyone interested in the raising of show dogs or care and treatment of dogs in general, contact Sue, 262 Loma Linda, telephone 359-5701. She loves animals.

NEXT WEEK I will probably have details on Mark McQueary's enlistment in the armed services. Mark is the youngest son of Art and Jean McQueary, who live on La Fiesta. Someone asked Jean the other day some of the details — when, where, and etc., and Jean just remarked that she rather not talk about it now.

Isn't it strange how life works — when the kids are little, cooing and kicking, they get to you right in the heart.

When they are fourteen or fifteen, joking and eating, they get to you in the pocketbook.

Then when they've graduated from school and are practically grown, and are coming and going, it gets to you in the old heart again.

Mark was on the track team in high school and represented his school at all of the local track meets, winning many honors, and went to the finals at Austin. We are all quite proud of Mark.

WE WILL MISS Modene Weed and her children now that they have moved from Siesta. I won't forget the Halloween party last year at Siesta when Modene came dressed as a hillbilly. Big painted freckles on her face and a few front teeth blacked out.

She was great and I do hope that the family enjoys the acreage they bought "way out."

HAVE NEWS FROM ex-tenant Frances Whirley who says Tucson, Arizona, is great but very hot. She proudly announced the birth of Jonathan Schaff, son of her daughter Patti and husband Ken, of Tucson. Jonathan is doing great.

The family was wishing for some of our cool 95 degree weather. They even missed the wind. How about that?

DIANA OAKLEY STOPPED by the office the other day to put up a sign reference to interested parties starting a bowling league for the park.

Diana manages the cafe at the Grand Bowl. Anyone interested in starting a league, or bowling with Diana, contact her at 352-9285.

OUR NEW AVON lady in the park is Mrs. Pat Fluke, 236 La

Fiesta, telephone 355-0454 for those so inclined.
I RAN ACROSS a clipping the other day that is really worth reading again and again. It was printed in a Southwest Baptist Church Bulletin. "How to Plant Your 1976 Christian Garden."
Plant four rows of Peas: Personality, Perseverance, Promptness and Preparation.
Plant four rows of Squash: Squash indifference, Squash Gossip, Squash criticism and Squash negative thinking.
Plant four rows of Lettuce: Let us obey God's commandments,

Let us be Faithful to God, Let us be true to our obligations and Let us love one another.
Plant four rows of Turnips: Turn up for church regularly, Turn Up with a friendly smile, Turn Up with humble Reverence and Turn Up with God's love in your heart.
Cultivate well, perspire a little, and reap the benefits of an outstanding blessed garden.
WTSU GRADUATE, DAVID Robinson, has accepted an appointment as opera and voice instructor at William Jewell Baptist College in Liberty, Missouri.
David is the son of Vi Robinson, a La Fiesta Street resident, and Vi is quite proud of him. He will be leaving August 19 for his new teaching post.

BILLIE AND ROWENA Warner popped into the office recently to bring me up to date on their going and coming.
They stay busy at the Warner home on Loma Linda, but occasionally squeeze in time to take the new boat to Greenbelt for fun on the water. Course, the whole family is sporting a nice tan, as a fringe benefit.
IT HAS OFTEN occurred to me that we seldom say thank you to the people who do so much for us. For example, Mr. Ross Russell, our mail man out here at Siesta.
I would hate to trade jobs with Ross because his job is so much harder than mine and yet he does his job with a smile and good humor all the time. Thank you.

And many thanks to Don of Pioneer Natural Gas Company who has helped us in many ways, too.
HOME FROM THE hospital after recent surgery is Mrs. Dan Pritchett of Siesta Ln. She looked pretty shaky when she came by the office to see about her mail. I do hope she is feeling better right soon because she's such a nice lady.
ANOTHER NICE LADY recovering from minor surgery is Sharon Shipley. Spoke to her a couple of days ago, and she should be home and feeling better when we read this. Hope so.

WANT TO SEE something pretty? Go see Oleta Potter at 135 La Fiesta Street. She has been crocheting some of the prettiest things — afghans, bedspreads, throws, pillow covers, etc.
She brought a couch throw to the office to show me recently, and of course I fell in love with it.
Dr. Craven is judge for writing
Dr. Gerald Craven of West Texas State University has been appointed regional judge for the 1976 National Council of Teachers of English Achievement Awards in Writing Program.
The NCTE annually honors approximately 800 high school students from 7,000 nominees.

All the ladies are probably acquainted with the granny stitch — well this one is an improved granny stitch and its gorgeous. She also sells them to the public and believe me they will make beautiful gifts. Call Oleta Potter at 353-3442 if you'd like to know more about these gorgeous creations.
My husband accuses me of being crocheted crazy. He's probably right.
BEST WISHES TO Faye Riser who went into the hospital recently. Peck stuck his head in the door to let me know his favorite wife was under the weather. Get better soon, Faye.

Gene News

By FARRIS ANN MORRISON WELL, JUST AS I was about to do my calling Sunday night, my sister-in-law invited me to go home with them. So with twelve hours' notice I'm frantically packing. This column will be short!

But in about three weeks, I'll be back; every one keep notes — especially the Kid's Incorporated coaches — because I'll be calling you then.

Appraisal firms ask payment at finish

Two of five outside appraisal firms being eyed to provide a full revaluation of county property have asked by letter that they be paid for their services upon completion of the revaluation.

Mrs. Audrey Bruse, county tax assessor, apparently asked each appraisal firm to propose methods of financing the revaluation and the letters are in response to her queries.

She turned the letters over to county commissioners Monday.

Southwestern Appraisal Co. of Austin proposed commissioners pay the cost of the revaluation, which could go as high as $300,000, in equal monthly installments with final payment in full upon completion of the revaluation, which is estimated to take about a year.

Southwestern also proposes the use of five-year warrants issued by the county to cover the cost.

McMorries and Co. of Hereford likewise asks for payment in full at the completion of the revaluation, but proposes to carry the debt beyond that point with the county paying an interest rate mutually agreeable.

Commissioners are scheduled to meet today to decide whether to commence the revaluation program and with which firm. They are also scheduled to decide how to pay for the program.

Hereford group to meet here

Texas Junior Hereford Association members will have their annual meeting at the West Texas State University Nance Ranch east of Canyon on July 7-8. The event is co-sponsored by WTSU and the Panhandle Hereford Breeders Association.

Preliminaries begin July 7 and include an open house sponsored by the PHBA and visitation of member ranches in the Texas Panhandle. The TJHA state showmanship preliminaries begin at 4 p.m. at the WTSU Nance Ranch, and the Texas Hereford Auxiliary will host an ice cream supper at the Villa Inn in Amarillo.

Registration of contestants and special entertainment will be at 8 a.m. Thursday. At nine the welcome will be given by Dr. Charles Smallwood, dean of the School of Agriculture at WTSU. The remainder of the morning will consist of the showmanship finals, a judging demonstration, judging contest and weight guessing contest.

The noon luncheon, sponsored by the PHBA, will feature barbecue for all. Guest speaker for the luncheon will be Lori Longacre, American Junior Hereford Association director from Eureka, KS. Also included on the afternoon agenda will be a fund raising auction, public speaking contest for interested TJHA members and a skit presentation entitled

The winners of the judging, showmanship, public speaking, weight guessing and achievement contests will be presented awards during ceremonies in the mid-afternoon.

A late 1975 registered Hereford heifer will be the big award given to the highest placing TJHA individual judge. Calliham Ranches of Panhandle will donate the heifer which was sired by SHW Mischief D4.

A trophy will go to the high individual judge and belt buckle to the high individual judge who is a TJHA member.

Dr. Smallwood urges all 4-H and FFA members to attend.

The stern rancher Uncle Henry (portrayed by Harrell Floyd for his sixth season) is matched with Aunt Anna (portrayed by Jane Lipscomb) as the eleventh season of "TEXAS" is underway.

'Texas grown from hide and horn' sums up cattle worth to state

Cattle were so important in early Texas that when this state was admitted to the Union one wit remarked: "Other states were carved or born — Texas grew from hide and horn."

Isn't it great that in Texas, the land of cattle, that consumers have a plentiful supply of beef on the supermarket shelves. And what better time to share our bounty of beef than on the bicentennial birthday of America, as Americans everywhere — not just in Canyon — will be laying a selected steak, slab of ribs, roast, or a perfectly seasoned patty on the outdoor grill.

Although the "cookout" has captured the hearts of Americans as a summertime sport, many devotees to outdoor cooking are still a bit "grill shy" while other outdoor chefs present burnt offerings due to broiling at excess temperatures.

Actually a cook can be just as competent in the backyard as at the modern kitchen range. Confidence and success at outdoor cooking comes easily with practice and a few simple rules of the grill.

Mastery of the fire is basic to successful outdoor cookery, and this is not a difficult skill to acquire. A moderate temperature is as important to meat cookery outdoors as in the kitchen, and this is produced by ash-covered coals rather than smoke-producing flames.

The fire is ready when coals are covered with ash and glowing in the center. For broiling, spread coals in a layer so heat will be distributed evenly. They may be just touching or up to an inch apart.

During cooking, heat may be controlled by adjusting the grid, rearranging, adding or removing coals, adjusting dampers or draft doors.

Roasting on the rotisserie is an excellent method for large cuts as the beef will cook evenly as in self-basting. In this case, place a drip pan under the turning beef and arrange the coals around the pan.

Although informality prevails at a cookout, the menu can have all the appeal of the bill of fare of the finest restaurant. For the top selections on restaurant menus — beef roasts as well as steaks and burgers — can be prepared to perfection on the outdoor grill.

It is important to select roasts that are as regular in shape as possible. Boneless or boned and tied roasts are ideal. Possibilities include beef rib eye, tip, rump, cross rib and chuck eye roasts.

Outdoor grill favorites are steaks and beefburgers. Tender steaks such as Porterhouse, T-bone and sirloin are at their best when cut one inch thick or thicker. Plump burgers are most juicy and delicious.

Blade steaks from the beef chuck, cut 1/2 to 3/4 inch thick, offer a tasty treat. They are most tender when marinated for four hours or more before grilling and served rare or medium. A thick top round steak, marinated, broiled to rare and carved in thin slices across the grain, is yet another tasty possibility.

To satisfy the family's steak appetite, many smart shoppers buy economical beef blade steaks and marinate them in a tangy barbecue sauce for broiling.

- Bar-B-Q Steak
- 1 beef blade steak, cut 1/2 to 3/4 inch thick
  - 1/4 cup catsup
  - 2 tablespoons vinegar
  - 2 tablespoons water
  - 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
  - 1 teaspoon salt

Combine catsup, vinegar, water, Worcestershire sauce and salt. Place steak in utility dish or plastic bag and pour marinade over it, turning to coat. Cover dish or tie bag securely and place in pan. Marinate in refrigerator 6 hours or overnight, turning at least once. Remove steak from marinade and place on rack in broiler pan so surface of meat is 4 inches from heat. Broil 7 to 10 minutes on each side, depending upon degree of doneness desired (rare or medium), brushing occasionally with marinade. 2 to 4 servings.

Beef kabobs are ideal for broiling. Cut cubes of the same size from sirloin steak or tip. Kabob cubes of tip should be marinated before broiling. When round steak is partially frozen, thin strips can be cut more easily.

- Barbecued Beef Strip Kabobs
- 2 pounds beef top round steak, cut 1 1/2 inches thick
  - 1/4 cup chili sauce
  - 1/4 cup tomato juice
  - 1/3 cup oil
  - 1/4 cup vinegar
  - 1 small onion, finely chopped
  - 3 tablespoons brown sugar
  - 1 tablespoon prepared mustard
  - 2 teaspoons instant coffee
  - 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
  - 1 jar (16 ounces) cherry peppers
  - 2 ounces sharp Cheddar cheese
  - 2 ounces Monterey Jack cheese

Cut steak crosswise into strips 1/4-inch thick or less and place in plastic bag. Combine chili sauce, tomato juice, oil, vinegar, onion, brown sugar, mustard, coffee and salt in small saucepan. Simmer 5 minutes, stirring occasionally; cool. Pour sauce in bag, mixing to coat beef strips. Close bag securely (pressing out air), place in utility dish and marinate in refrigerator 6 hours or overnight. Remove stems from cherry peppers and carefully remove seeds (keeping opening small); place, stem end down, on absorbent paper to drain. Cut cheese in cubes, allowing 1 for each pepper, and carefully insert in opening of each. Remove meat from marinade; bring marinade to boil in small saucepan and reserve. Thread strips of beef, weaving back and forth, on six 15-inch skewers. Place on rack in broiler pan (or over ash-covered coals on outdoor grill) so surface of meat is 2 to 3 inches from heat. Broil 3 minutes. Brush strips of beef with barbecue sauce; push together to allow 3 to 4 inches space at end of each skewer. Thread cheese-stuffed cherry peppers on ends of skewers; turn and continue broiling 2 to 4 minutes or until done. Avoid overcooking. 6 to 8 servings.

A boneless compact cut, such as a beef tip, cross rib or chuck eye roast, is an appropriate selection to celebrate our country's bicentennial in the backyard, patio or park with family and friends. You can count on the tantalizing aroma of roasting beef to spark a lively celebration.

- Beef Rotisserie Roast
- 3 1/2 to 8-pound boneless beef tip, cross rib or chuck eye roast, tied

Insert rotisserie rod through center of roast and test for balance by rotating rod in palms of hands. Tighten spit forks so roast turns with rod. Insert roast meat thermometer so the tip is centered in the roast and does not rest in fat or on rod, and so it will clear the cooking unit and drip pan. Roast over ash-covered coals (at low to moderate temperature) to desired degree of doneness: 140-degrees F. for rare; 160-degrees F. for medium. Allow 35 to 40 minutes per pound for a roast weighing 3 1/2 to 5 pounds; 30 to 35 minutes per pound for roast weighing 5 to 8 pounds. For easier carving, allow roast to "set" in a warm place 15 to 20 minutes after removal from the rotisserie.

*Since roast usually continues to cook during this time, it is best to remove roast when about 5-degrees F. below the temperature desired.

Slow firecracker time before noon.

DANCERS FROM THE announcement. The group Canyon Capers Square Dance Club will be holding their regular Monday evening "stomp" on July 5, according to a recent club convenes at 8:30 p.m. each Monday evening in the Randall County Junior Livestock Building and guests are welcome to join the group.

SUMMER RECREATION CLASSES will be having a holiday on Monday but will be resuming their regular class schedules on July 6.

IF YOU'RE PLANNING on "fireworks" for July Fourth — keep in mind the dangers of the sport plus the fact that it is illegal to set off fireworks within the city limits.

And remember too that damages from the fireworks (whether set off by a child, teenager or an adult) are the liability of the parent. Thus, if your $2 firecracker sets a wheatfield afire — you are responsible to the owner of that wheatfield for his financial loss — and that's a high priced firecracker.

READING IS A good pastime for summer and thus far eight students enrolled in the Summer Reading Program at Canyon City Library have already completed the required 12 books and are ready for their certificates.

The students, and others completing the program, will receive certificates in early August at the Library Board sponsored "swimming party."

In addition to the eight students, who have already completed requirements, about 70 other readers are involved in the summer reading program, according to the librarian, Mary Huntington. Enrollments may be made at the library anytime and the program will be ending July 31.

MEMBERS OF THE Canyon major league teams had a night at Wonderland amusement park last week. About 60 youngsters went on the outing. After the rides had all been ridden and the games all played, the Royals ended the outing with pizza.

MRS. JO MCGEE of Kerrville visited her sons and their families here.

She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilson of Canyon and Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson of Sunday Canyon.

MAJ. AND MRS. George D. Bertish returned to Canyon this week to visit Mrs. Bertish's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Cosby. Visiting friends and relations with them were their children, Scarlett, Shane and Eric. The Bertish's now live at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.

Drilling now on city wells

Drilling has begun on the two water wells to be added to the city water system.

City Manager Glen Metcalf said the wells were being bailed now and are expected to be in service by Aug. 1.

"The tests taken from the holes are very favorable," Metcalf said. "Right now, it looks like they will be as good as any well we have."

The two new wells and two test holes into the deeper Santa Rosa formation will cost $95,752.

Ellis family has addition

WALLS conform to one of three options: #ONE - 6" walls with R-19* insulation, #TWO - tongue and grooved styrofoam sheathing, 4" walls and R-11* insulation, or #THREE - R-15* minimum insulation. Walls must include a vapor barrier of 6 mil. polyethylene or foil-backed sheetrock. Sill insulation or sill caulking (under bottom plate) is also required.

CEILING insulation must equal R-30*.

FLOORS (if pier and beam construction) must be insulated with R-13*. The Country Squire Dinner Theatre's opening show will be the new comedy smash hit by Nick Hall titled "Accommodations." Directing the first show will be Jim Hancock and the show is slated to run through July 31 serving the total Panhandle of Texas to an evening of entertainment, according to Peter Fox, theatre president and executive producer.

Fox was the former managing director for Amarillo Little Theatre 7 years. He says that "dinner theatre" will be entertainment for Canyon-Randall County area residents and will also be an outlet for dramatic and musical talents attending West Texas State University.

The dinner theatre is planning a monthly run of topnotch plays including the August production of "Six Rm RiVu," which will follow the original show "Accommodations." By next summer's season, Fox hopes to stage the theatre performances in his own building.

Aiding Fox with the "complete evening of entertainment" theatre are Bill Sherr as theatre manager. He was formerly the ALT technical director for four years and was previously with the Windmill Dinner Theatre at Houston.

Others on the Country Squire theatre staff are Carl Gideon of Panhandle as technical director and Margie Pryor as secretary-bookkeeper.

Business is brisk at fireworks stands

For a nickel, you can get a colorful bird that shoots high into the air.

Or 15 cents will buy a Black Magic.

The prices go up from there. There's the giant bursting comet for $1.75; bottle rockets, a dozen for $1.

For beauty, there are the bigger sky rockets. One bursts into 15 separate explosions or dancing butterflies that fan out into smaller, daintier displays. These cost about 15 cents.

Adults prefer the more elaborate fireworks, Karla Thompson said this week at the booth she was tending south of the city limits. Youngsters go for firecrackers and bottle rockets.

Right now, children make up most of her trade, Miss Thompson said.

"It's kids mostly until about the last week. Then adults come. Like on the Fourth, lots of parents come," she said.

Business has been brisk so far. "I'm really pleased," said Emily Rolan at her booth. This is the first year she has sold fireworks. Kids are stocking up, she said, on fireworks that may be illegal next year.

The Bicentennial gets the credit for improved sales from Miss Thompson. "This year has been good," she said. "All the years have been good really, but the Bicentennial thing makes it better."

Both booths will sell through the Fourth of July.

BANG UP HOLIDAY—Emily Rolan and her daughter, Kym, help youngsters select an assortment of fireworks for the Fourth of July.

Outside appraisal called illegal

If County Tax Assessor Mrs. Audrey Bruse allows county commissioners to hire an outside appraisal firm to revalue property in Randall County she will be violating her oath of office, her opponent in the November election charged this week.

Bob Burks, an Amarillo realtor who is running on the Democratic ticket against Mrs. Bruse, said he believes the oath of office of the tax assessor-collector requires that she be in charge of any revaluation.

Hiring of an outside firm at a cost of between $200,000 and $300,000 would be an abrogation of that responsibility, Burks said.

"In my opinion, her office should do the revaluation," he said. "It's not up to the taxpayers of Randall County to be assessed more for the revaluation of property. It's up to the tax assessor-collector to do it. This is money that should not be spent."

Burks said he feels the job could be accomplished by the tax assessor-collector and three or four appraisers working out of her office for far less than $200,000 or $300,000.

County commissioners are scheduled to make a decision today on whether or not to hire an outside firm to revalue all county property.

They will meet at 1 p.m. for the special session.

The revaluation effort began more than a year ago as an in-house operation under the supervision of Mrs. Bruse. But, the resignation of John Carrington, who had headed the revaluation effort until May, brought the matter before commissioners who called for bids for the job from outside firms.

University panel studies transfer of student credit

The transfer of student credit hours from one institution to another has been the concern of a special committee chaired by West Texas State University Vice President for Academic Affairs Ray Malzahn.

The Association of Texas Colleges and Universities committee presented their findings from a Texas college and university administrator survey to the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System.

"The goal of the Coordinating Board and institutions of higher education is to provide counseling and be organized in such a way that a student can achieve his goal with a minimum number of required hours," Malzahn explained.

Included in the committee's ten proposals is the recommendation that senior institutions prepare equivalency tables on courses offered at community colleges, especially those from which the majority of transfer students come.

The committee also recommended a free and open exchange of information on the topic of credit transfers, as well as the continual update by the CB and ATCU of existing core curricula and the extension of that coverage to other subjects.

The proposals are in "A Progress Report of the Committee on Transfer of Credit Under the Commission on Academic Affairs" which appeared in the proceedings of the 1975 ATCU annual meeting bulletin.

Household good taken in farm home theft

Burglars entered the farm home of Bob Winters northeast of Canyon Sunday evening and made off with $400 in household goods and an antique shotgun.

Randall County's Chief Deputy Cecil Johnson said the burglars apparently entered the home through a window.

Mrs. Fred Winters reported the burglary about 9:40 p.m. Sunday. She told investigating deputies she was about a quarter mile from the home when she noticed a dark car in the yard of the house. She told deputies the car was parked in the yard about 10 minutes and then backed out of the yard, and headed east.

The following items were reportedly taken from the home: a 12-inch portable television set; a tape recorder and player; a silver and turquoise men's ring; a sapphire and diamond men's ring; a piggy bank containing about $12 in change. In addition, an antique 12-gauge shotgun was stolen.

Happy News

Town will honor Millers

By MARY NEAL HENRY
MR. AND MRS. G. L. (Lawrence and Pearl) Miller of Route 1, Happy, have been invited to be the special guests of Keyes, Okla., during the July 4th celebration of the 200th birthday of our country.

The Millers have donated a city block to the city of Keyes. The site will become a park and will have grass, a flower bed of red, white and blue flowers and a monument which will have an eternal flame.

The name of the park will be Keyes Centennial City Park but the monument will proclaim the Millers as the donors and an eternal flame will top the monument.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Miller were married on April 5, 1924, in Boise City. Their first home was on a relative's farm. The land in Keyes was purchased in 1926 and a service station and home built on the site in the spring of 1927. The building was moved to Dumas in 1935 and remodeled into a rent house. That enterprise when sold paid the down payment on the land northeast of Happy where the Millers moved in 1943. They built a new home in 1966 and 1967 on their present land located in Randall County four miles north and five miles east of Happy.

The Millers are farmers and have run a herd of Hereford cows on their grasslands for many years. Both of them work together in all their tasks. Pearl raised chickens and sold eggs to certain customers every week until her health forced her to give up raising chickens.

We lived neighbors to the Millers for about 15 years. They were good neighbors and always willing to help in time of need. We are most pleased to recognize them for their generosity.

judiciary.

"If every layman judge in Texas and the United States would continue their education, these types of problems would not occur," he said.

Pond is currently the only layman judge sitting on the Continuing Legal Education Committee of the State Center for the Judiciary.

In the Kentucky case decided Monday by the court, a defendant had argued before the court that he had been denied due process under the Constitution because he was tried before a non-lawyer judge.

While the Monday case, then, has a favorable impact on Pond, Supreme Court action last week overturning a 1974 law requiring state and local governments to pay their employees the minimum wage is not expected to impact here.

The court ruled that the 1974 law, which established minimum wage and hour requirements, would impermissibly interfere with the integral government functions of the local governments.

Pond, who is budget officer for Randall County, said the change will not impact on the county and its employees.

He said the county will continue to pay some employees at the minimum wage scale and will probably continue to try to limit overtime by employees, perhaps now providing compensatory off-time during workdays rather than overtime pay.

Hermas Miller, financial vice president at West Texas State University, said the institution has always been exempt from the act because it is a state education agency.

"But we think we should pay as close to the minimum wage as we can," he said. "We want to do this."

City Manager Glen Metcalf said the ruling will not change any schedules or pay in the Canyon Police Department because police officers here now work 40 hours per week.

Metcalf said the decision would probably impact more on larger cities where firemen and policemen hours have been restricted under the act.

"I do think it's an important decision," he said. "If it is not reversed, it is advantageous to the city. Of course, you have to keep in mind in hiring that you have to compensate your workers fairly for their work. We pay minimum wage now."

Processed CATTLE MANURE

Great for this year's crop
... and the next and the next and the next.

Unlike raw manure, Tilleez® nutrients are available for plant uptake for this year's crop. And, it builds the soil and moisture-retaining capacity for future crops.

Tilleez benefits your soil and gives it improved tilth. The bacterial mass developed in the Tilleez process makes use of the locked-up nutrients, already in your soil, by converting them to readily usable plant food.

And, with all of these advantages, you still get a good supply of nitrogen ... usable nitrogen!

Tilleez is the result of a unique process of aerobic bacterial digestion that converts raw manure into a valuable soil conditioner and fertilizer. In the big million-dollar plant at Summerfield, aerobic microorganisms create the heat that kills weed seeds and changes the manure into a form that makes its natural nutrients readily available to plants.

Tilleez is a product of the BioCon Division of Searle Agriculture.
